

Opportunity for Growth & Advancement

Are you the Right Person? Join Our

Browns Engineering & Construction (Pvt) Ltd. is a subsidiary company of LOLC Group and Browns Group. Over the past two years, we have taken the construction and telecommunication industries to a very successful level by providing end-to-end solutions in the construction and telecommunication sectors. The telecommunication division under Browns Engineering & Construction can be recognized as one of the leading telecommunication divisions that facilitates overall major telecommunication infrastructure, implementation & maintenance, and research & development.

Technical Officer

- Field Technical reporting and documenting in telecom tower premises and share the reports in proper manner.
- Timely execution of all work orders and customer complaints within given SLA.
- Capability of fault identification and rectification.
- Comply with health, safety and environmental procedures at all time.

Qualifications

- Diploma or equal qualification in Telecommunication and Electronics from a recognized Institution & Knowledge of Telecom Implementations
- Minimum 02 years work experience in telecommunication industry with professional engineering qualification.
- Sound knowledge of the equipment uses in GSM, WCDMA, LTE network.
- Good written and verbal communication skill.
- Valid driving license to drive light vehicle is an added advantage.

Interested candidates, please forward your soft copies of the CV's within 10 days of this advertisement, with details of two non-related referees.

Mention the position applied for, on the subject line

The HR Division

Browns Engineering & Construction (PVT) LTD

Level 5, Browns Capital Building, No 19, Dudley Senanayake Mawatha, Colombo 08

Email: careers@Brownsengineering.com

